

SPECIALIST COURSE ON MOVEMENT JOINTS AND UNCOUPLING MEMBRANES

COURSE CONTENT

Specialist Course Movement Joints and Uncoupling Membranes with due regard for all aspects of health and safety

Uncoupling Membranes

- What are uncoupling membranes and why are they needed?
- Where should they be used and what are the benefits of using uncoupling systems

Adhesives including health and safety

- Product range, applications

Practice in:

- Mixing
- Appropriate tools
- Spreading
- Using Uncoupling Membranes

Movement Joints

- What are movement joints?
- Why are movement joints needed?
- Example of typical problems and how can they be avoided
- Appropriate movement joint selection and location guidelines

Adhesives and grouts including health and safety

- Product range, applications

Practice in:

- Mixing
- Appropriate tools
- Spreading
- Using movement joint profiles
- Tile fixing

COST: £30.00 incl. VAT (non refundable)

Please note you will receive a selection of BAL products once you have completed the course.

A buffet lunch will be provided.

Payment must be made in full at time of booking. All payments to be sent to the Stoke on Trent address. All cheques to be made payable to Building Adhesives Ltd.

For further information contact:

Janet Webster

Tel: 01782 591100

jwebster@building-adhesives.com

All major credit/debit cards, cheques and postal orders accepted
14 days are required for cheque clearance prior to commencement of course.
All cheques to be made payable to Building Adhesives Ltd.

